

The Centers for Culture and History in Orleans

“WINDOWS INTO ORLEANS’ PAST” SPEAKER SERIES

Paintings, postcards and photographs of Orleans’ past will be featured in a new weekly series of history presentations by local speakers starting November 7 at the Centers for Culture and History in Orleans (the CHO).

Thursdays at 7 pm at the CHO Meetinghouse in November (7th, 14th, 21st) and December (5th, 12th, 19th) • Admission is free; donations appreciated

Full listing of topics and dates will be on www.CHOcenters.org

NOVEMBER 7 at 7PM

Commercial Fishing on Cape Cod Bay

with Captain Bill Amaru

NOVEMBER 14 at 7PM

A History of the Railroad to Orleans and Beyond

with Jay Stradal

NOVEMBER 21 at 7PM

Postcards from Orleans’ Past

with Stan Snow

DECEMBER 5 at 7PM

The Orleans Packet Trade and Other Maritime Ventures,

1640-2000

with Captain Bill Amaru

DECEMBER 12 at 7PM

Kent’s Point: A Place of Beginning and Belonging

with Bill Wibel

DECEMBER 19 at 7PM

History and Evolution of the Cape Cod-style House

with Architect Thad Siemasko of SV Design, Inc.